RUBRIC FOR EVALUATION OF WRITING

Writer: _____ Evaluator: _____

1. COMPOSING – Average Score _____

SCORE	MAIN IDEA Score_____	DETAILS/EXAMPLES Score_____	ORGANIZATION Score_____
4	Sharply focused	Lots of specific and well-chosen details/examples. The writing is very interesting.	Everything is in the right order. Everything links back to the main idea. Appropriate transitions make the writing easy to follow.
3	Clear	A little fuzzy at times. A few more details would be helpful. The writing is somewhat interesting.	Almost everything is in the right order. Some details may not belong.
2	Not clear or unsupported	Too few details or details all mean the same thing.	Nothing seems connected. The paper rambles or is just a list.
1	None or unelaborated	Very few details or a bunch of details that don't fit together.	The paper jumps from point to point illogically.

2. WRITTEN EXPRESSION – Average Score _____

SCORE	EXAGGERATION Score_____	INFORMATION/WORD CHOICE Score_____	SENTENCES Score_____
4	Four or more examples were given	Precise information and lively, colorful words create powerful images.	Sentences are different lengths and have different word orders. The writing flows smoothly.
3	Three examples were given	Good information; some words are vague.	Some awkward sentences, but the writing flows fairly well.
2	Two examples were given.	Poorly selected information; vague or dull words.	Sentences are all alike or are full of awkward phrases.
1	One example was given.	Information and words are vague, general, and/or repetitive.	Sentences are monotonous and/or very awkward.

3. USAGE/MECHANICS – Score _____

SCORE	CAPITALIZATION, PUNCTUATION, GRAMMAR, SENTENCES, SPELLING
